

DAY 3
31 May 2014

SON OF MAN

Lord Jesus Christ, we will never know how much it cost You to humble yourself and to become human, like us.

We will never know the taste of that cup of the Father's wrath that You drank on our behalf, but we may and can know You.

In the world that we live today, there are so many empty promises, so many lies and deceptions. You promised that we will know the truth and that the truth will set us free.

O, how we need to be set free! How the world needs to see what true holiness and godliness is!

We long for You to manifest yourself in us, to transform us, to deliver us from our human weakness, to empower us with your divine gifts.

Soften our hearts so that our love will not cold as lawless increases.

Pour your love and compassion into our hearts so that we can really love; Unconditionally. Outrageously. Contagiously. Yes, that we can truly love our enemies or those we perceive as our enemies.

Deliver us from criticism, judgmentalism and tongues that curse and kill others.

Touch our lips with your holy fire so that we can speak words of encouragement, words of life and words of authority.

Remove from us all fear, intimidation and reluctance so that we can share the Good News with boldness.

Open the gates of nations for us.

Prepare the hearts and minds of people.

Lead us to that harvest of souls that You long for. Here we are, send us!

Amen.
